

NORTHERN TRIBUNE.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 22, 1885.

Hymen's Halt.

On Sunday evening last Mr. J. E. St. Germain, of the Franklin House, was united in marriage to Miss Mary Feeley. The ceremony occurred at St. Mary's Church, Rev. Father DeSmedt officiating. Mr. St. Germain by his courteous ways has made many friends since taking up his residence in Cheboygan and all wish him unbounded happiness in his new alliance.

Negligee.

Is the name adopted for the new dancing club recently organized and which meets in the rooms on the second floor of the bank building. The second meeting of the club was held last Monday evening and a permanent organization perfected by the election of the following officers: President—Harry W. McArthur, Vice President—John B. Adams, Secretary and Treasurer—Geo. F. Raynolds.

A very pleasant dance was enjoyed and the evening passed very happily. The regular meetings of the club occur every other Monday evening.

The Jury.

The following persons have been drawn to serve as jurors at the January term of the Cheboygan county circuit court, which opens Tuesday of next week:

Benton—John L. Moloney, Joseph Lachance, John M. Dowling, Henry J. A. Todd, Moses Rabin, Wm. Erratt, Vincent Adams, Joseph Allair, George Fitzpatrick, Patrick Moloney, Merritt Chandler, Wm. H. Scott, Charles D. Farmer, Chas. H. Brannack, Wm. C. Mayes and George G. Wharton.

Duncan—Joseph Henry and Thomas France.

Montor—John W. Bury and George D. Richards.

Mackinaw—George W. Stimpson.

Tascara—M. W. King and Wm. M. Smith.

Inverness—Charles Goulin.

Serious Runaway Accident.

Last Thursday afternoon Post & VanArsdale's horse ran away with a sleigh in which was Adrian Johnson and Miss Mason, both being thrown out near the residence of A. P. McKinnon. Mr. Johnson being thrown against the horse block in front of Mr. McKinnon's house and his right leg broken above the knee. Miss Mason was more fortunate, being landed in a snow bank and not seriously injured. Mr. Johnson was taken to Dr. Hill's residence, where he boards, and Dr. T. A. Perrin was called and set the broken limb.

The harness giving way caused the horse to become unmanageable, and he started off at a lively gait. The cutter was completely demoralized; the iron on the runners being about all that was left of value. After the smash up the horse crossed the bridge at John F. McDonald's, the shafts flying in the air and coming down at every jump, increasing the terror of the horse. When near John Heaphy's place he got rid of the shafts, and was stopped near Adolphus Paquin's place.

Mr. Post says all he regrets is that it was not the horse's leg that was broken instead of Mr. Johnson's, so that the horse would have been shot. Mr. Johnson had hitched the horse in the cutter for Mrs. Post and sister to take a ride and drove him around to Mr. Post's residence for them to get in, but owing to some lady friends calling upon them they could not go at the time, which, as after events showed, was very fortunate for them. Mr. Johnson is doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

New Additions to the Village.

O. S. Heyden has surveyed and plotted two additions to the village, to be known as Turner & Humphrey's first and second additions to Cheboygan village. The first is a part of Sammons' addition to Cheboygan, on Court street, running from Grove street on the west to the right of way of the Michigan Central railroad. Where Grove street is, as plotted by Mr. Heyden, in Sammons' addition was only a rod wide alley. The addition consists of 14 lots running in size from 4 rods by 6 to 4 rods by 8. The second addition is a part of the Piret addition to the village, on the east side of the river, and comprises four blocks, 13 with 18 lots each and one with 16 lots, making a total of 70 lots. As plotted in the Piret plat they were laid out to run with the points of the compass, and consequently were on the "aque geo," as Mr. Humphrey says, with the streets, and consequently the houses had to be cut bias with the street in order to conform to the lot. As plotted by Mr. Heyden they all lay at right angles with the streets. The addition lays between Duncan Bay road and F street, and between First and Third streets. Mr. Humphrey is going to make application to council to vacate those portions of the original plots by Sammons and Piret, that have been re-plotted by Mr. Heyden for Mr. Turner and himself and to have the new plots accepted. It is certain that the land as plotted by Mr. Heyden is in much better shape for village lots than as originally plotted.

Death of Wilson Newton.

Last week we stated that Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Newton had been called to the bedside of Mr. Newton's brother Wilson at his home on the Island of St. Helena. We regret to say that the illness proved fatal, he passing away Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The disease was cancer in the stomach. The funeral took place Saturday, the remains being deposited in the cemetery at Gross Cap, by the side of his wife who had gone before. The funeral was largely attended, twenty-six vehicles following the remains from the family residence to the grave notwithstanding the day was extremely cold and a ride on the ice anything but pleasant.

Few men were better known in this section than Wilson Newton, and none enjoyed the confidence of his fellowmen to a greater degree or was more highly esteemed. For about forty years he had resided in this section. Since 1880 he had been in partnership with his brother A. P. Newton, of Cheboygan, the firm doing a large mercantile and fish business at the Island of St. Helena. He was of a very genial disposition, firm in his convictions, just in all his dealings, a man whose word was as good as his bond, and had accumulated considerable property. For a series of years he had served as supervisor of the township of Moran, Mackinac county and aided largely in developing that county. He would have been 64 years old the day he was buried. He leaves a family of five children. His frequent visits to Cheboygan made him well known here and hosts of friends mourn his loss and sympathize with the relatives in their bereavement.

The Lumbering Industry.

In 1880 there were 25,680 lumbering establishments in this country, employing $181,000,000 capital and 146,000 hands, distributing $31,000,000 a year in wages, using $140,000,000 worth of material and turning out an annual product of $233,000,000. Of the whole product, Michigan produces 23 per cent. Pennsylvania 10 per cent. Wisconsin 8 per cent. and New York and Indiana about 6 per cent. each. Few of the Southern states reached a product of over $4,000,000. The whole south is a forest region and its great pine, cedar, poplar, cypress and oak districts are still almost untouched, and must ultimately become the center of this industry.

Mortgage Sale.

[First Publication Jan. 22, 1885.]

Whereas, default has been made in the payment of the money secured by a mortgage dated the 19th day of December, in the year 1881, executed by Joseph DeKosca, of the township of Grant, county of Cheboygan, and state of Michigan, to Joseph I. Now, therefore, notice is hereby given that by virtue of the said power of sale, and in pursuance of the statute in such case made and provided, the said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the premises therein described, at public auction, to the highest bidder, at the front door of the court house, in the Village of Cheboygan, in said county of Cheboygan, on the 20th day of April next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, which said premises are described in said mortgage as follows, to wit: The northwest 1/4 of northwest 1/4 of section 21, in town 37 north, range one west, Cheboygan county, Michigan, containing forty acres, more or less.

THE INTER OCEAN.

In 1885 THE INTER OCEAN enters upon the fourteenth year of its existence. Given unusual confidence by the people in its early days it has steadily grown in favor until this day, when the publishers take pride in the fact that the paper goes into more homes and has a greater number of readers than any publication west of the Alleghenies.

From the beginning THE INTER OCEAN has stood firmly by the principles of the Republican party, and has, in season and out of season, contended for "protection to American industry." It does not agree with the idea that the mission of the Republican party is finished; on the contrary it believes that, purified by adversity, it will in the near future again rise to the higher planes of thought and action and be completely restored to the confidence of the American people. The most important agencies in accomplishing this result will be Republican journals. If a reliable, staunch, Republican newspaper was important when the Republican party was in power, it is doubly so now that the Democracy control the National Government.

THE INTER OCEAN will in the future as in the past be the medium through which the best Republican thoughts will be given to the people. It will voice the convictions of advanced Republicans without being unfair even to Bourbon Democrats. It will be aggressively Republican without being bitterly partisan, and will give as much attention to the affairs of Cleveland's administration as it would have given to the administration of Mr. Blaine had he been elected. With an Associated Press franchise, with special wires reaching to New York and Washington, with special correspondents in all important points in the country, THE INTER OCEAN will use its facilities for collecting news without fear or favor, and so far as governmental affairs or party movements are concerned will give a fuller record than any other paper.

All of the old departments will be continued. The scope of the WOMAN'S KINGDOM will be widened so as to take in all the industrial and reform movements in which women are interested and engaged. OUR CURIOSITY SHOP, now a standard, will be given greater variety and interest. In the FARM AND HOME and other departments the widest possible range of topics will be discussed.

Of original short stories and serials, the very best by American and English authors will be given during the year. Arrangements have been made to publish during the year short stories by BOYSEN, HOWELLS, LATHROP, and others, and a new serial by the author of "One Summer," and to publish all these in addition to the serials by MISS BRADDON and other English authors.

In every department of news and literature THE INTER OCEAN will make a better record than it has ever done.
